Comments
 1. found with 10460 a 10461 at SP9805 7128.
 These 3 celts are all in the same condition: white patina, a light brown encrustation on the back face.
 6 celts found with fragments of Neolithic pottery beneath an old yew tree when digging for the construction of a new house. Two more axes possibly found later.
 There 3 came from first find. Northants Evening Telegraph, 22 June 1938:
 'The fragments of pottery found appear to be of the type made by this people [i.e. Neolithic, round-bottomed vessels, known as "Windmill Hill" pottery, 20.]
