Comments 1. BM. 631

2. This & BM 1915. 12-8. 328 are part of Wm. Ransom's collection of 365 pieces. Only 4 other ~~pieces~~ provenanced pieces come from Sussex ('Sussex Downs' & 'near Eastbourne 1896'), most being from Herts. & Beds (Ransom lived at Hitchin). The 2 celtis are very similar - in shape, flake scars, condition (white patina, lightly rolled; 327 has more iron-staining on one face than 328, where staining is almost absent: neither have significant staining on second face) & raw material (grey patches in flint). Although no clue is given in the register, it seems likely that the celtis were buried together.
