Comments 1. this & no.10813 seem to form a clear pair. Museum records show they were bought as part of a collection belonging to a Dr.Hawkesley, The Hospital for Sick Children, 91. Ormond St, W.C.T., along with 9 other flint or stone artefacts, all apparently from Lound, from excavations carried out by water authority. The 2 artefacts are of very similar flint (dark grey with lighter patches), similar workmanship & the same fresh condition.
